BHASKAR CHATTERJEE,
Financial Commissioner and Principal Secretary to Government Haryana, Town and Country Planning Department.

STATE ELECTION COMMISSION

S.C.O. NO. 16-17, SECTOR 20-D, CHANDIGARH

The 28th January, 2004

No. SEC/3E-III/2004/964.—Whereas, during the Second General Panchayat Elections held in March, 2000, Shri Prahlad was elected as Panch from Ward No. 4 of Gram Panchayat Patli Hazipur, Block Farukh Nagar, District Gurgaon, which was challenged by Shri Lallu another candidate before the Hon'ble Civil Judge (Sr. Division) Gurgaon. The Hon'ble Civil Court in its judgement dated 27th August, 2002 allowed the petition and declared the petitioner Shri Lallu as winner candidate. In the scrutiny and counting of votes undertaken by the Hon'ble Civil Court, it was found that out of total number of 164 votes counted, the petitioner Shri Lallu secured 98 votes and the respondent Shri Prahlad secured 51 votes and 15 votes were invalid. So, the petitioner Lallu has obtained 47 more votes than the votes obtained by the respondent Shri Prahlad. The Hon'ble Civil Court had also observed that the Returning Officer and Presiding Officer had committed serious irregularity in counting of votes and illegally declared the respondent Prahlad as elected Panch.

2. And, whereas, Shri Ramesh Chander, Instructor Machinist, ITI Gurgaon was appointed as Presiding Officer of Polling Station No. 42 in Village Patli Hazipur at which the votes for the election of Ward No. 4 of Gram Panchayat Patli Hazipur were polled.

3. And, whereas, Shri Om Parkash, Block Development and Panchayat Officer, Farukh Nagar was appointed as Assistant Returning Officer, Panchayat Samiti Farukh Nagar to assist the Returning Officer, Panchayat Samiti Farukh Nagar in the conduct of election to the Panchayat Samiti Farukh Nagar.

4. And, whereas, Rule 66(2) of the 1994 Rules ibid provides that after the counting of all ballot papers contained in all the ballot boxes has been completed, the Returning Officer (Panchayat) or the officer authorized by him shall make the entries in the result sheet on Form 14 for a Panch and shall also announce the particulars.

5. And, whereas, Rule 70(1)(a) of the 1994 Rules ibid further provides that Returning Officer (Panchayat) or Assistant Returning Officer (Panchayat) shall declare to be elected the candidate for the office of Panch who has secured the largest number of valid votes and certify the return of election in Form 18. The Rule 70(1)(a) also provides that for the purpose of declaration of result for the office of Panch, the Presiding Officer shall be deemed to be the Returning Officer.

6. And, whereas, in the election to Ward No. 4 of the Gram Panchayat Patli Hazipur, under the provisions of Rule 66(2) of 1994 Rules ibid, Shri Ramesh Chander, the Presiding Officer was required to make entries in the result sheet on Form 14 and under the provision of Rule 70(1)(a), the Presiding Officer being deemed to be Returning Officer also to certify the return of election in Form 18.

7. And, whereas, in the enquiry into the matter, it was found that on an unsigned Form 14, a result sheet under Rule 66(2) of the Haryana Panchayati Raj Election Rules, 1994, Shri Om Parkash, Assistant Returning Officer, Panchayat Samiti Farukh Nagar, who was posted as Block Development and Panchayat Officer, Farukh Nagar at that time and now an HCS Officer declared the respondent-And whereas it was Shri Prahlad elected as Panch from Ward No. 4 of the Gram Panchayat Patli Hazipur. Shri Ramesh Chander, Instructor Machinist, ITI Gurgaon, the Presiding Officer of the Polling Station and also deemed to be Returning Officer for declaring the result of Panch of this ward who was required to make entries and put his signatures on this Form 14 on which the respondent Shri Prahlad was declared elected.

8. And, whereas, during the course of inquiry, Shri Om Parkash, Assistant Returning Officer Panchayat Samiti now an HCS Officer, in his statement made on 15th September, 2003 before the State Election Commissioner, stated that since Form 18 for the election to the offices of Panches of the Gram Panchayat, Patli Hazipur were not filled up and not handed over by most of the Presiding Officers to the Returning Officer, he, after contacting the DDPO, who told that the matter has been discussed with the Deputy Commissioner, Gurgaon, on the basis of entries made in Forms 14 declared the results for Panches of Ward Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 4 on Forms 14 itself. He also stated that since the signatures of the Presiding Officer had not been put on Form 14 relating to Ward No. 4 and the details of votes polled in favour of the candidates had been written on the backside of Form 13, so on that basis, he declared the respondent Shri Prahlad, elected as Panch and also recorded a note to the effect that the result was declared as per orders of the Deputy Commissioner and that is why, he had put the date 13th March, 2000 after his signatures on the form. He also stated that the results for Ward Nos. 2 and 3 were also declared by him on Form 14 on 13th March, 2000, but the date had not been mentioned after his signatures.

9. And, whereas, Shri T. C. Gupta, IAS, Senior Regional Manager, Food Corporation of India, Chandigarh, who was posted as Deputy Commissioner, Gurgaon at the time of Second General Panchayat Elections, in his statement dated 9th December, 2003 stated that no instructions were issued by him to the effect that the results of Panches and Sarpanches should be declared by the Assistant Returning Officer (Panchayat Samiti), Farukhnagar and in this case, by Shri Om Parkash, HCS, Assistant Returning Officer (Panchayat Samiti), Farukhnagar for the election to Panches and Sarpanches of Gram Panchayat, Patli Hazipur.

10. And, whereas, in Rule 66(2) and Rule 70(1)(a) of the 1994 Rules ibid, Shri Om Parkash, Assistant Returning Officer, Panchayat Samiti, Farukh Nagar had no role in the election and declareing the Panch for Ward No. 4 of the Gram Panchayat Patli Hazipur.

11. and, whereas, under Rule 70(1) the candidate securing highest number of voters in election of Ward No. 4 of Gram Panchayat Patli Hazipur was required to be declared elected on Form 18 by Shri Ramesh Chander, Presiding Officer and also deemed to be the Returning Officer and not by Shri Om Parkash, Assistant Returning Officer, Panchayat Samiti, Farukh Nagar.

12. And, whereas, in the election to Ward No. 4 of the Gram Panchayat Patli Hazipur, under the above referred provisions of the rules, it was Shri Ramesh Chander (Presiding Officer and also deemed to be the Returning Officer) who was required to make entries on Form No. 14 and certify the return of election on Form No. 18 but Shri Om Parkash, Assistant Returning Officer, Panchayat Samiti, of his own, unauthorisedly declared the respondent Shri Prahlad elected as Panch on Form 14 on which there are no signatures of Shri Ramesh Chander, Presiding Officer or any other officer.

13. And, whereas, on Form 14, Shri Om Parkash, Assistant Returning Officer, Panchayat Samiti, unauthorisedly declared the respondent Shri Prahlad elected as Panch, who in the scrutiny and counting of votes undertaken by the Hon'ble Civil Court was found to have polled lesser number of voters as compared to the petitioner Shri Lallu.

14. And, whereas, Shri Om Parkash, Assistant Returning Officer, Panchayat Samiti Farukh Nagar had acted without jurisdiction in declaring the respondent Shri Prahlad elected as Panch for Ward No. 4 of Gram Panchayat Patli Hazipur on a Form 14, which was not prepared and signed by Shri Ramesh Chander, the Presiding Officer and also deemed to be the Returning Officer.

15. And, whereas, it is clear that Shri Om Parkash, HCS as Assistant Returning Officer, Panchayat Samiti Farukh Nagar, had no jurisdiction to declare the respondent Shri Prahlad elected as Panch from Ward No. 4 of the said Gram Panchayat, that too on the basis of details of valid votes polled in favour of the candidates as written under Column 3 of Form 14, which had not even been signed by Shri Ramesh Chander, Presiding Officer and also deemed to be the Returning Officer. Therefore, by doing so, Shri Om Parkash, HCS had became a partner in the irregularity and illegality.

committed in declaring Shri Prahlad elected as Panch in whose favour lesser number of votes were polled, when infact the highest number of valid votes were polled in favour of the petitioner Shri Lallu. In the circumstances of the case as reported by him in his statement, instead of he himself declarating the respondent-Prahlad elected as Panch, he should have called Shri Ramesh Chander, the Presiding Officer and also deemed to be the Returning Officer to make entries and fill Form 14 and certify the return of election on Form 18 to declare the candidate in whose favour highest number of votes have been polled.

16. And, whereas, by exceeding his jurisdiction in declaring the respondent Shri Prahlad elected as Panch, Shri Om Parkash, HCS has acted in a manner unbecoming of a functionary assigned with statutory responsibilities as Assistant Returning Officer, Panchayat Samiti, Farukh Nagar.

17. And, whereas, the Hon'ble High Court of Punjab and Haryana in its Interim order dated 9th January, 2004 in CWP No. 17447-03 directed that the Government must give undertaking that no election work or duty whatsoever be assigned to Shri Om Parkash, HCS, who was acting as Assistant Returning Officer at the relevant time.

18. And, whereas, during the hearing before the Hon'ble Punjab and Haryana High Court on 22nd January, 2004, Assistant Advocate General submitted a copy of affidavit filed by the Financial Commissioner and Secretary to Government Haryana, Development and Panchayats Department before Hon'ble High Court in which it was mentioned that deponent can not take any decision to debar any officer from doing any election relating work or duty and it lies within the jurisdiction of the State Election Commissioner, Haryana.

19. Now, in view of overall position discussed above, in exercise of powers under Sub-section (1) of Section 212 of the Haryana Panchayati Raj Act, 1994 and Section 3(A) of the Haryana Municipal Act, 1973 and all other powers enabling me in this behalf, I, T. D. Jogpal, State Election Commissioner, hereby order that Shri Om Parkash, HCS shall be debarred from being entrusted with any work or duty relating to Panchayat and Municipal elections at any time in future and he shall not be placed in any field posting during the course of any future Panchayat and Municipal Election events. A copy of this order shall be placed in C.R. Dossier and service records of Shri Om Parkash, HCS.

No. SEC/3E-III/2004/988.—Whereas, during the Second General Panchayat Elections held in March, 2000, Shri Prahlad was elected as Panch from Ward No. 4 of Gram Panchayat Patli Hazipur, Block Farukh Nagar, District Gurgaon, which was challenged by Shri Lallu another candidate before the Hon'ble Civil Judge (St. Division), Gurgaon. The Hon'ble Civil Court in its judgement dated 27th August, 2002 allowed the petition and declared the petitioner-Shri Lallu as winner candidate. In the scrutiny and counting of votes undertaken by the Hon'ble Civil Court, it was found that out of total number of 164 votes counted, the petitioner-Shri Lallu secured 98 votes and the respondent-Shri Prahlad secured 51 votes and 15 votes were invalid. So, the petitioner Lallu has obtained 47 more votes than the votes obtained by the respondent Shri Prahlad. The Hon'ble Civil Court had also observed that the Returning Officer and Presiding Officer had committed serious irregularity in counting of votes and illegally declared the respondent Prahlad as elected Panch.

And, whereas, Shri Ramesh Chander, Instructor Machinist, ITI, Gurgaon was appointed as Presiding Officer of Polling Station No. 42 in Village Patli Hazipur at which the votes for the election of Ward No. 4 of Gram Panchayat Patli Hazipur were polled.

And, whereas, Rule 66(2) of the Haryana Panchayati Raj Election Rules, 1994 provides that after the counting of all ballot papers contained in all the ballot boxes has been completed, the Returning Officer (Panchayat) or the officer authorized by him shall make the entries in the result sheet on Form 14 for a Panch and shall also announce the particulars.

And, whereas, Rule 70(1)(a) of the 1994 Rules ibid further provides that Returning Officer (Panchayat) or Assistant Returning Officer (Panchayat) shall declare to be elected the candidate for the office of Panch who has secured the largest number of valid votes and certify the return of election in Form 18. The Rule 70(1)(a) also provides that for the purpose of declaration of result for the office of Panch, the Presiding Officer shall be deemed to be the Returning Officer.

And, whereas, according to the provisions as contained in Rule 66(2) of 1994 Rules referred to above after completion of the counting of all the ballot papers contained in all the ballot boxes for the election to Ward No. 4 of the Gram Panchayat Patli Hazipur, Shri Ramesh Chander, the Presiding Officer and deemed to be the Returning Officer, should have certified the return of election on Form 18 and declared to be elected the candidate for the office of Panch for this ward who had secured highest number of valid votes.

And, whereas, Shri Ramesh Chander has written the details of votes on the backside of Form 13 i.e. 98 against the name of the candidate Prahlad, 51 against the name of the candidate Lallu, 15 rejected, total 164.

And, whereas, the details written by Shri Ramesh Chander on the backside of Form 13, were found to be wrong, because in the recounting of votes it was found that 98 valid votes were polled in favour of the petitioner Lallu and 51 valid votes were polled in favour of the respondent Shri Prahla.

And, whereas, resultantly on an unsigned Form 14, Shri Om Parkash, Assistant Returning Officer, Panchayat Samiti Farukh Nagar declared the respondent-Prahla elected as Panch from Ward No. 4 of Gram Panchayat Patli Hazipur, mainly because the number of valid votes polled in favour of the candidates written in Column 3 of this unsigned Form tally with the details written by Shri Ramesh Chander on the backside of Form 13. In this way the details of votes against the names of the candidates wrongly written on the backside of Form 13 by Shri Ramesh Chander led to declaring the respondent Prahla elected even when lesser number of valid votes were found to have been polled in his favour during the scrutiny and recounting of votes undertaken by the Hon'ble Civil Court and Shri Lallu the petitioner in whose favour the highest number of valid votes were found to have been polled in the scrutiny and recounting of votes undertaken by the Hon'ble Civil Court, was not declared elected as Panch.

And, whereas, during the inquiry, statement of Shri Ramesh Chander was recorded by the Commission and it was found that by not making the entries in Form 14 and not certifying the return of election on Form 18 and not depositing these two forms with the concerned authorities, Shri Ramesh Chander, Instructor Machinist, ITI, Gurgaon, has acted in the manner unbecoming of a functionary assigned with statutory responsibilities as Presiding Officer and also deemed to be the Returning Officer.

Now, under the circumstances given above, in exercise of powers under Sub-section (1) of Section 212 of the Haryana Panchayati Raj Act, 1994 and Section 3(A) of the Haryana Municipal Act, 1973 and all other powers enabling me in this, behalf, I, T.D. Jogpal, State Election Commissioner, hereby order that Shri Ramesh Chander, Instructor Machinist, ITI, Gurgaon, shall be debarred from any election duty in future for the Panchayat and Municipal Elections in the State. The Commission also directs that the copy of this order shall be placed in the CR Dossier of Shri Ramesh Chander, Instructor Machinist, ITI, Gurgaon.

No. SEC/1E-III/2004/1015.—Whereas, the names of the following persons were notified by the State Election Commission, Haryana.
